Worksheet 3: Form Your Team

How many teams do you need?

Often there will be several sub-teams: A Leadership Team that makes high level decisions, a Management Team that is accountable for day-to-day operations and an Advisory Team that may be partly composed of customers.

List your team structure and team members below:

LEADERSHIP TEAM

__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________

MANAGEMENT TEAM

__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________

ADVISORY TEAM

__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________
__________________________