

Accredit your CE/CME activity through the Association of Diabetes Care & Education Specialists (ADCES)

ADCES is accredited by Joint Accreditation for Interprofessional Continuing Education. This unified framework promotes education that is designed by the healthcare team, for the healthcare team.

What is ADCES JointCE?

The ADCES JointCE partnership program is your resource for designing CE/CME eligible activities for non-ADCES affiliated organizations, suitable for the healthcare team or individual team members.

TOP FEATURES INCLUDE:

- One streamlined application provides credit for up to SIX professions: social workers (ASWB), dietitians (CDR), nurses (ANCC), PAs (AAPA), pharmacists (ACPE), and physicians (ACCME).
- Access to ADCES clinical resources and CE accreditation expertise.

BENEFITS

- Expand your market reach: ADCES has more than 11,000 members from multiple disciplines that interact with people with diabetes.
- Learning formats accepted for accreditation include in-person events, online events, recorded webinars and online courses.
- Host your activities with the ADCES learning management system for easy registration, evaluation, transcript tracking, and reporting. (additional fees may apply)
- Include your company logo on the JointCE webpage and link to your upcoming activities.

Visit
diabeteseducator.org/JointCE to learn more or contact us directly at CEApplication@adces.org